

SARAH TYLER-WALTERS TRANCE MEDIUM

Biography

Sarah trained as a mental medium at The London Spiritual Mission and then as a trance medium at The College of Psychic Studies. She is also an accredited Spiritual Healer. She has been working at the College since 2004. Sarah is one of the few trance mediums in the world to deliver a wide range of work accessible through trance: one to one consultations, trance healing, training in trance mediumship (theory & practical), public demonstrations of trance and most rare of all, lectures delivered by Spirit.

In a trance, Sarah works with Master Chou, a wise and compassionate Spirit being; offering a unique chance to speak about you and your life with Spirit. Trance consultations with Sarah and Master Chou are an opportunity to receive clarity. Receive insight into who you are, the causes behind blocks and patterns, direction and guidance on creating transformation in your life. Consultations create a space for you to receive information about the deepest parts of yourself and your path.

Master Chou can work with you on your emotions, well-being (physical & energetic), personal & spiritual development and much more. Businesses have also consulted him, as well as scientists and professional mediums; the breadth of his knowledge is extensive while his manner is compassionate and down to Earth. Master Chou also runs his own discussion groups, courses and masterclasses.

As a teacher Sarah embodies many of the same traits as Master Chou, aiming to deliver information that is simple, clear and relevant to your life. She teaches a broad range of subjects that reflect her personal experience with Spirit and the vast learning she has received from Master Chou. As a teacher, Sarah balances theory with practical and imaginative exercises often devised by Spirit.

Sarah also teaches others subjects that are related to trance, such as Automatic Writing & Channelling. She is currently the only teacher to run courses in Spirit Writing. Over the last few years, she has also developed a series of courses and workshops focused on helping you to live spiritually and energetically well.

As a teacher, her greatest gift is bringing clarity where there is confusion. Sarah's passion is in the fundamentals - "Get the foundation right and what you build will be strong". Her teaching and coaching provide an excellent platform for your personal and spiritual development.
